General Information:

Overflow parking will be available through EC's North gate near the corner on Walnut St. Make sure to arrive early and head directly to the prep area (patio by small arena). Class patterns will be posted on the bulletin board the day before and are available anytime by request. Bleachers for additional family members and spectators will be located in the breeze-way by the big arena. Raffle tickets will be offered for sale by the announcer's booth, the raffle tickets will be drawn during the lunch break. Show clothes are encouraged, but optional. Hair should be tied back accordingly, EC will be assisting with hair, numbers, and make up (bring your own) in the prep area. Please keep your picture-taking to a minimum during the time in between classes. Many of the horses have back to back classes and multiple riders. They will need to hurry back to the prep area. There will be time designated for pictures after the show. Pack a lunch and LOTS of water. Other essentials include sunscreen, a camera, cushions to sit on, show apparel, and make up (light lip gloss is acceptable. Be sure to know what classes you are in and stay close to the prep area and listen for your name. If you have any questions you should talk to your instructor or call Vandl at (951) 203-8144. This show is offered to promote the spirit of good sportsmanship through competition. After the last class of the show, an Outstanding Sportsmanship Award will be presented to the student who best represents good sportsmanship. Most importantly, have fun!

Class Definitions
